TE Crain reminded presbyters to be in prayer as the presbytery continues to explore the feasibility of beginning a RUF ministry at Texas State University in San Marcos. He exhorted the presbyters to pray for this work and for its feasibility, finances, and future campus minister. TE Crain also shared plans to begin this work through opening a new financial account for RUF at Texas State, which will require initial funding of $5,000 by September 1, 2025. TE Southerland invited Ryan and Katie P. to share about their work in Central Asia where they serve with Mission to the World (MTW). They shared that the team in their current city is growing and working to grow slowly but surely in learning the local language and integrating into the local community. Katie has been able to get her local medical license and help with the greater expatriate community, helping with education in the community as a whole. Ryan has been working to start a local small business, using it as a platform for greater sharing of the gospel. While they are in a primarily Muslim context and there is freedom to gather and even convert, Ryan shared that there are social and cultural factors that make this challenging. Ryan encouraged presbyters to be in prayer for incremental growth and growing developmental roles in cultivating church leaders and for a connection to the International Presbyterian Church and a side project to work with RUF campus ministers to develop an internship program to engage college students in cross-cultural ministry. Ryan shared about a nontraditional support-raising effort with a young woman from Isaiah 55 Ministries in Mexico, who is planning to come to Central Asia to reach Muslims and partner with a local business and he encouraged presbyters to consider supporting her. TE Southerland prayed for Ryan and Katie.

TE Southerland invited TE Elias "Gama" Pozos to share about his work with MTW along the U.S.-Mexico border. TE Pozos reminded the presbyters that churches along the border are struggling and requested continued prayer for healing and growth for the church in this part of the world. TE Rob Bailey prayed for TE Pozos.

TE Southerland invited Becky Young to share about her work with CPI's Women's Conference in Monterrey, Mexico. Becky shared that they will be walking through discipleship materials but that they are in need of $1,200 in funds to help with travel and housing costs. TE McCollum prayed for the Youngs and their upcoming women's conference.

TE Southerland encouraged presbyters to consider including a consistent contribution in their church's budget to support women's ministry and theological education in contexts where women may not otherwise have the means to access theological resources and attend ministry-equipping events. TE Southerland encouraged presbyters to examine the MTW website to see how they can partner with missionaries in this way.

The report of the Mission to the World Committee was received by the presbytery and TE Southerland closed his report with prayer.

TE Taha prayed for TE Gibbs and Covenant Seminary

Change of Call of TE Luke Evans. The committee met with TE Luke Evans, who has been selected as the new Executive Director for Reach South Texas and TE Tim Frickenschmidt, a board member of Reach South Texas. The committee reviewed TE Evans's call and found it in order and confirmed that it is acceptable to him. The committee confirmed that TE Evans will be engaged in preaching and teaching the Word and is assured he will have full freedom to maintain and teach the doctrine of the Presbyterian Church in America and that he will report at least annually on his work, in conformity with BCO 8-7. In addition, the committee confirmed that the new call to TE Evans will afford him the liberty to proclaim and practice fully and freely the whole counsel of God, as contained in the Scriptures and understood in the Westminster Confession of Faith (BCO 20-1). Seeing that the conditions of BCO 8-7 and 20-1 have been met, a motion coming from the committee was made and passed that TE Luke Evans be moved from without call to out of bounds as Executive Director of Reach South Texas.

TE Michael Novak asked questions of Carter on the English Bible. Carter answered questions from the floor. A motion was made, seconded, and passed to arrest the examination.

A motion coming from the committee was made and passed to sustain Carter's examination on the English Bible.

RE Alan Tysinger asked questions of Carter on the Book of Church Order. A motion coming from the committee was made and passed to sustain Carter's examination on the Book of Church Order.

TE Greg Ward asked questions of Carter on theology. A motion coming from the committee was made and passed to sustain Carter's examination on theology.

Recording Clerk TE Holt West read Carter's stated exceptions in his own words to Westminster Confession of Faith 1.8 and 21.8 and Westminster Larger Catechism 109:

WCF 1.8 - Confession should include Aramaic as one of the languages for the Old Testament. Parts of Daniel, Ezra, and Nehemiah are all written in Aramaic.

WCF 21.8 - The Sabbath is a day of holy rest, patterned after the week of creation where God made the world in six days and rested on the seventh (Ex 20:8-11). Therefore, a Christian should "observe a holy rest...from their own works, words, and thoughts concerning their everyday occupations." The divines also include that Christians should rest from all 'recreations.' While I believe that some recreations constitute a breaking of the Sabbath (travel-ball sports), other recreations (going on a walk with my wife; throwing a ball in the backyard with one of my kids) do not constitute a breaking of the Sabbath.

WLC 109 - I agree that we are only to worship God in the ways that he has instituted (Lev 10:1-2). Therefore, images for worship are strictly forbidden and constitute a breaking of the second commandment (Ex 20:4-6). Additionally, depicting God as any creature whatsoever for a piece of artwork is prohibited (Deut 4:15-16; Acts 17:29). However, I believe that depicting the second person of the Trinity in his humanity for pedagogical or artistic purposes, or imagining him in one's mind as a man, is permissible.

A motion coming from the committee was made and passed to judge and accept Carter's stated difference to WCF 1.8 as merely semantic.

A motion coming from the committee was made and passed to judge and accept Carter's stated differences to WCF 21.8 and WLC 109 as more than semantic but not out of accord with any fundamental of our system of doctrine.

A motion coming from the committee was made and passed to license Grant Carter for the purpose of regularly providing the preaching of the Word, in accordance with Book of Church Order Chapter 19.

All requirements of the Book of Church Order having been met, Moderator Torrey asked Carter the questions from Book of Church Order 19-3, which Carter answered in the affirmative. The moderator pronounced the licensure of Carter with the language of Book of Church Order 19-4 and prayed for Carter.

Therefore, at Austin, Texas, the 9th day of August, 2025, the South Texas Presbytery, having received testimonials commending Grant Carter, proceeded to submit to him the prescribed examination for licensure, which was met to the approval of the presbytery. Having satisfactorily answered the questions for licensure, Grant Carter was licensed by the presbytery to preach the Gospel within the bounds of this presbytery.

The completed report of the Credentials Committee was received by the presbytery and TE Witten closed his report with prayer.
